Adrien Alberini specializes in technology law, providing services in relation to the setting up of innovative projects, drafting and negotiating complex agreements, as well as representing clients before courts or in the context of settlement negotiations. Adrien Alberini further assists entrepreneurs and fast-growing companies in relation to the development of their commercial activities, the structuring of their business and the management of financing matters. Moreover, Adrien Alberini is a recognized expert in economic law, a field in which he assists entities in the public sector on a regular basis. He also provides regular assistance to private companies with respect to regulatory issues and their relationship with States or regulators.

After graduating from law school at the Universities of Lausanne and St-Gallen (2001-2005), Adrien Alberini has obtained a PhD in European Competition Law at the University of Geneva (2005-2009). Adrien Alberini was then admitted to the Geneva Bar (2011) and has postgraduated from Stanford Law School with an LL.M. in Law, Science & Technology (2013-2014). Prior to joining Walder Wyss, he has practised at a leading Swiss law firm (2009-2016) and was a partner at a boutique firm specializing in technology law (2016-2024).

Adrien Alberini speaks French, English, German, and Italian. He is registered with the Geneva Bar Registry and admitted to practice in all Switzerland.
